

A GOOD GRAND JURY.

Every effort is being made to break down the San Francisco Grand Jury.

Ormsby county also has a Grand Jury that will not be bullied, bribed or browbeaten, and certain parties in this city are anxious to have it adjourn as soon as possible.

The honest stand being taken by these men against the gilt-edged criminal element of this city is endorsed by every decent citizen.

There is a good deal of work for the Grand Jury to do the next time it meets, and they are a body of men well qualified to attend to their sworn duties.

There is an approaching crisis in affairs in this county, and we believe the present Grand Jury is well qualified to attend to it.

"J. Sloat Fassett."

The Eureka Sentinel has the following:

"On general principles we would like to see any public man snowed under who spells his middle name in full. A man so spelling his name betrays a degree of vanity or something worse, that puts him outside of the great mass of the people who are possessed of what is commonly called 'horse sense.' We have never had any particular admiration for this sort of eccentricity, not to say idiocy. There is a feeling all over this western country that the man is weak in the 'upper story' who does it. 'J. Sloat Fassett' is seeking political honors in New York and people will probably take great delight in warming his jacket in the coming election as a means of getting even. For our own part we would not have the slightest feeling against him he did not part his name in the middle."

The above will be endorsed by almost any sensible newspaper.

COME TO THE SCRATCH.

A Fair Chance for Durhams and Jerseys.

The statement made by Mr. Kaupisch of the Douglas creamery that Holsteins were not good milkers, and not equal to Durhams and Jerseys, can best be settled by a contest at the District Fair.

John Sweeney, Henry Fulstone and the proprietor of the APPEAL are the principal breeders of thoroughbred Holsteins in this District. The parties named will enter into a milking contest with any of the Durhams or Jerseys in Mr. Kaupisch's creamery herd for any part of $1,000 a side.

Three Holsteins against three of any other breed, the cows producing the most milk in 48 hours to take the stakes.

Mr. Sweeney authorizes the APPEAL to state that if this match does not suit Mr. Kaupisch he will match one Holstein cow in a week's milking contest against any two cows Mr. Kaupisch owns for $1,000 a side or upwards.

The editor of the APPEAL will make a milking match with Mr. Kaupisch with a half breed Holstein against a thoroughbred Durham or Jersey of the same age on any terms he pleases.

If Mr. Kaupisch will call at this office during the present week he can get almost any kind of a match he wants on a milk and butter contest.

Fred Daugberg and Herman Springmeyer have some fine Holsteins and will match milk records with him any time.

Jim Townsend evidently refers to Orlando Jones when he says: Queer things get mixed occasionally. An old friend who is seized with spasms of sobriety every year or two, is now lecturing on temperance and peddling patent beer faucets.

After consulting with the British agents the Sultan has decided to reconstruct the administration of his Government and appoint responsible Ministers in the different branches, he himself reserving the fixed civil list.

There seems to be a general sentiment in favor of going to Carson to attend the District Fair next Friday.

Everybody who can leave talks of visiting the Capital City on that day. Fair for the round trip is $2 for adults and for children under 12, $1—Journal

The Red Bluff News says a number of young cattle in the mountains near Deer Creek are dying of a peculiar ailment. The mouth bleeds, the throat is flooded with blood and the animal becomes choked and dies. A few horses have also died of the same malady.
